Showdown on Dodd Is Due Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen.
Thomas J. Dodd says he's confident his colleagues will reject a resolution censuring him despite overwhelming defeat of a bid to wipe out one set of charges against the Connecticut Democrat.

The Senate, in its first vote after seven days of debate, rejected 92 to 2 Wednesday a proposal for dropping charges of financial misconduct in connection with campaign and testimonial funds, and substituting an admonishment not to do anything wrong in the future.

Dodd, excused from voting at his own request, said the lopsided vote didn't discourage him.

The white-haired, two-term senator told newsmen later he has "complete confidence" in the final outcome because: "I have been guilty of no conscious wrongdoing."

Expected today are the showdown votes on the two counts in the censure resolution recommended by the Senate ethics committee following a 14-month probe of Dodd's financial affairs.

One count charges Dodd with converting $116,083 raised at political testimonials and similar events to his own use.

The second accuses the senator of double-billing the Senate and private groups for travel expenses. Each is to be voted on separately.

Only Sen. Russell B. Long — author of the proposed substitute resolution — and Dodd's fellow Connecticut Democrat, Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff, voted for it in the late-Wednesday balloting.

Chairman John Stennis, D-
Miss., of the bipartisan ethics committee, called the substitute resolution "a ridiculous thing."
"This doesn't say anything," Stennis told the Senate. "It is just a lot of words. It is double-talk."

Sen. Wallace F. Bennett, R-Utah, the ethics panel vice chairman, warned acceptance of the watered-down version would make the Senate a laughing stock.

Long, D-La., Dodd's self-appointed defender, conceded his proposal was mild. But he said Dodd deserves nothing more severe.

Dodd said the real question was: "Have I got the dough or not? And I don't have it. If I did I'd get out."

Dodd obtained permission to leave the Senate chamber while the roll was called, saying he didn't want his presence to embarrass his colleagues. His wife and members of their family also withdrew from the gallery, where they have occupied front-row seats throughout the first seven days of debate.

After the vote, Ribicoff issued a statement saying he was "filled with compassion for Tom Dodd and his family."

"I have searched my conscience and my heart and cannot find it there to do them special hurt by voting for the censure of my colleague," he said.

Ribicoff, who faces re-election next year, has been regarded as on a spot politically with a vote either way likely to cost him support. Dodd's current term expires in 1970.

Egyptian Economy Is Gone But Nasser Is Re-Arming for War

EDITOR'S NOTE — AP Correspondent Dennis Neeld went to Cairo soon after Egyptian forces began massing in the Sinai Desert. He remained in the Egyptian capital through the Arab-Israeli war and has just gone to Athens, where he filed this report on conditions in Calro.

By DENNIS NEELD
ATHENS (AP) — President Gamal Abdel Nasser has largely succeeded so far in hiding from the Egyptian people the magnitude of Egypt's military defeat in the Sinai Desert.

But slowly the word is spreading. Troops have returned from the battlefield with tales of rout and horror. More and more families are being notified that their sons will never come back.

Cairo Radio and the government press maintain a steady drumfire of propaganda telling Egyptians it is only a matter of time before the lost territories are recovered.

There have been calls for a "people's war" and suggestions for arming the civilian population against Israel.

"We have lost a battle," say the commentators, "but we have not lost the war."

Bitter attacks on the United States and Britain continue.
Only American and British planes enabled the Israelis to push back the Egyptian army, maintains the government. And it claims the Israelis still had to resort to such weapons as napalm to secure a victory. Most Egyptians have swallowed the story.

If they needed a scapegoat nearer home they had a group of generals that Nasser fired in the war's wake.

Egyptians were stunned when told the country had agreed to a cease-fire and Nasser's prestige was at its lowest ebb. But he fought back with skill.

His emotional speech of resignation followed by massive demonstrations in his favor and his subsequent change of mind put Nasser back on top.

Thousands of screaming, banner-waving Egyptians stormed through the streets cheering and chanting as if they had won the war. The demonstration was undoubtedly stage-managed but the wave of pro-Nasser emotion seemed largely genuine.

The loudspeakers which only days ago echoed round the sun-baked squares of Cairo with martial music and prophecies of imminent victory are muted
now. The "on to Tel Aviv" banners are gone.

Today the commentators speak of preparations and sacrifices to be made before a "second round" can be fought. Few Egyptians believe a peaceful settlement with Israel is possible and few seem to want one.

They believe that for Nasser to sit at a conference table with Israeli leaders is inconceivable.

Already Egyptians are feeling the pinch. Meat and other food is scarce. Couples have been asked to give up their wedding rings to replenish the country's gold reserves.

Harder times probably are ahead. With the Suez Canal closed the flow of tourists at an end, Egypt's hard currency earnings have all but dried up.
It is surviving on Soviet handouts.

The outskirts of Cairo are jammed with troops. Columns of heavy tanks lie just off the main road to the airport. MIG jets scream overhead.

planes have been streaming into Cairo airport, reportedly with crated MIG fighters to replace those destroyed by Israeli bombing raids.

Diplomatic observers however, discount that Nasser plans to reopen the shooting war against Israel within the foreseeable future.

Nasser more likely pins his hopes on diplomatic maneuvering to regain his lost territories.
Arab oil and the Suez Canal are the bargaining weapons he hopes to use against the West to pressure Israel into withdrawing.

Debt Ceiling Vote Reversed in House

By EDMOND LEBRETON
WASHINGTON (AP) — House
Democrats, reversing a stunning administration setback of two weeks before, pushed through a $22-billion boost in the national debt ceiling.

Sent to the Senate on a 217-196 vote was a measure to raise the debt from a temporary $336 billion to a permanent $358 billion.

The action eased fears the Treasury might face a severe money shortage.

Failure of Congress to reset the debt limit by July 1 would see the ceiling drop to its permanent $285-billion level. The actual debt as of Wednesday was $330.57 billion.

But while the Senate still has to act on the measure — and won't start work until it has disposed of the censure resolution against Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn. — Democrats hold a comfortable margin in that chamber and are confident of getting speedy approval for the bill.

Chairman Russell B. Long, D-La., of the Senate Finance Committee scheduled hearings on the measure for next Monday and Tuesday. Long said he hopes it can be brought to a floor debate Wednesday.

It had been another story in the House, which stunned President Johnson's administration June 7 by defeating 210 to 197 a bill to increase the borrowing ceiling to $365 billion.

Republicans voted solidly against debt ceiling increases both times, insisting Johnson provide more information on the fiscal outlook and scale down domestic spending.

The GOP's initial victory was possible through the help of Southern Democrats and a sprinkling of Northern Democratic liberals, some of whom claimed their opposition resulted from Johnson's Vietnam war policies.

But the House leadership reclaimed 14 of these votes Wednesday, splitting the dissi-dental Southerners about in half and picking up all but a handful of the antiwar faction.

The White House said later Johnson "congratulated the House leadership for this act of fiscal responsibility."

In addition to the $358-billion ceiling provided by the new measure, a $7-billion cushion goes into effect July 1, 1968. Intended to provide for the fluctuations in income and outgo during the year, the cushion is to be renewed annually. It will expire, however, one day before the end of each fiscal year.

Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., of the House Ways and Means Committee, argued this device would provide a brake on spending.

The bill also would allow the Treasury to issue notes with maturities up to seven years, instead of five. The notes are exempt from the 4 1/4 per cent interest limitation that has halted the sale of longer-term securities.

It also would include in the national debt for the first time the participation certificates, or interests in pools of government-held loans, sold to private investors. This was a point strongly pushed by Republicans, who accused the administration of using the certificates to hold down the debt.

In an announcement Wednes-

Jordan as one of nine Arab

The department lifted its June travel to Algeria, Iraq, Lebanon, Libya, Sudan, Syria, United Arab Republic and Yemen — American citizens are required to obtain passports specifically endorsed by the State Department in order to travel to these countries.

Administration officials also said Wednesday they are studying what can be done to help
Arabs who fled territories occu-

The State Department said it has informed Libya it is ready to continue talks on Libya's re-

He apparently was responding

FRIDAY, JUNE 23

The 11th and 12th grades and college students will have a picnic and dance at the Hope Country Club 7-11 p.m. Friday, June 23. Each member may invite a date and one other couple. Hosts will be: Mr. and Mrs. Jim James, Mrs. W. A. Williams, and Dr. and Mrs. Lynn Harris.

SATURDAY, JUNE 24

A potluck and cards entertainment will be held at the Hope Country Club on Saturday, June 24 beginning at 7:30 p.m. Host couples are Mr. and Mrs. Garland Medders, Lyle McMahon, and Claude Dunne. This is the entertainment postponed from June 10.

MONDAY, JUNE 26

The Ann Wollerman Circle of the First Baptist Church will meet Monday night, June 26th. At 7:30 at the church for the Royal Service Program. All members are urged to be present.

TUESDAY BRIDGE CLUB

A local Tuesday Bridge Club met on June 20 in the home of Mrs. George Robison. The two tables of players included one guest, Mrs. Bill Wray. When scores were tallied, Mrs. E.J. Whitman and Mrs. R.L. Broach had the identical score for high. Assorted snacks were served with coffee and cold drinks for refreshments.

WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD NO. 2 MEETS

The Wesleyan Service Guild No. 2 met Monday night, June 19th in the home of Mrs. Jamie Russell, President.

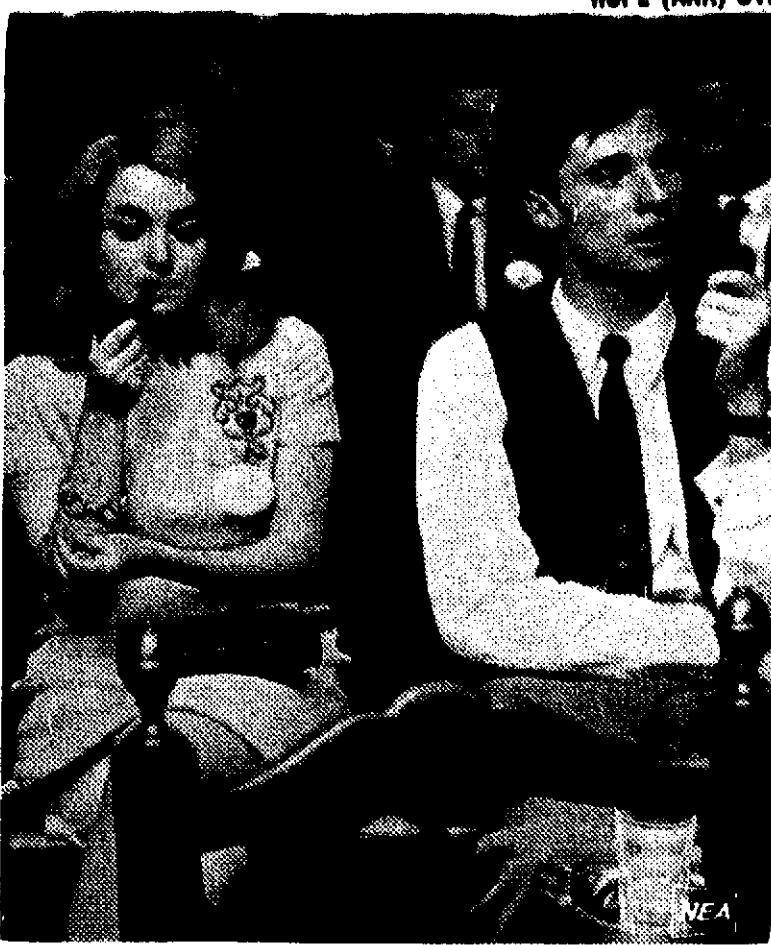

The meeting was opened with prayer after which Mrs. Russell presided over a brief business meeting.

The devotion entitled "Teach Us to Pray" by Peter Marshall was given by Mrs. Bruce Duke. Mrs. C.G. Tittle gave an interesting program entitled, "What's a Mother For?"

Punch, cookies, nuts and fellowship were enjoyed by seven members. Mary Louise Copeland served as co-hostess.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. William Timothy Walter, Los Angeles, announce the arrival of their second son, Wednesday, June 14. The boy weighed 6 pounds, 12 ounces and has been named Michael Andrew. Grandparents are Dr. and Mrs. George Wright of Hope and Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Walter of Abilene, Tex.

PRETTY PUFFER Maria Grazia Pozzati, 20, was one of four women who joined in a pipe-smoking contest recently in Milan, Italy, to show that the pipe can be handled with art and distinction by women as well as men. The contest was won by one of the 56 men entered.

STAND BY YOUR GUNS

Dear Helen: I am a high school senior and, like most young people, interested in my future vocation.

My best grades are in English and Journalism, and my vocational interest tests all say I shine in literary interest. They're so right — I'd rather write than eat, and for seven years now I've worked on school papers and magazines. I want a career in journalism and know I'd be good at it: magazines, newspapers, advertising — just so I can write.

The only thing that hinders me is my mother. She doesn't think writing is important. She wants me to be a teacher or secretary — something steady and secure. I try to tell her that when you have a dream, you must fulfill it. She just replies, "You're a foolish dreamer." Am I? — SERIOUS STUDENT

Dear Student: Your mother forgets that without the writers, there would be no teachers — for what could they teach?

When you have a dream, honey, don't let anyone sidetrack you — and don't ever listen to those who downgrade journalism. It's a fine and rewarding career, and there's no limit to how far it will

Dear Helen: A few weeks before school was out, I was forced to get a burr haircut, or be expelled for "skipping." I wanted to graduate with my class, so now I am practically baldheaded. It will take me all summer to grow back my long hair. Is this fair? — BARNEY

Dear Barney: Fair or not, take advantage of the clean-cut look and apply for jobs while you can still make a good impression. Employers are like school principals — they sense that a long-haired boy isn't a good risk — his ambition may be as limp as his locks. — H.

Dear Helen: I was in love with the greatest, kindest, most understanding guy in the world. But stupid me, I left him brokenhearted for another guy who seemed to have everything. We had an affair and I'm just lucky I didn't wind up pregnant.

No boy is understanding enough to take a girl back on those terms. If I tell him I'll lose him and probably scare off any other boy who might like me. But if I don't tell him probably someone else will. Oh, Helen, what in the world should I do? — GIRL WHO'S A JERK

Dear Girl: Too bad you girls who fall don't realize BEFORE what seems so terribly apparent afterward.

Say nothing and hope others won't either. However, you can be pretty sure boyfriend "A" already suspects, and you may not find him the respectful fellow you used to know — H.

Luci and New Son Are Just Doing Fine

By FRANCES LEWINE

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Luci Johnson Nugent gave her baby his first bottle of sugar and water, and doctors reported everything was going well with the President's daughter and her first grandchild.

Patrick Lyndon Nugent was reported making perfect progress in the maternity wing of Seton Hospital, where he was born Wednesday morning.

"Everybody's happy," said father Patrick J. Nugent as he gave an interview Wednesday night, 12 hours after the birth of his first child.

The baby was wheeled in his bassinet into Luci's hospital room for a first feeding of water and glucose, Nugent said.

The 23-year-old Nugent smilingly confessed he found fatherhood an enjoyable experience.

He reported his 19-year-old wife "gay and cheerful." She had received a telegram from her father, the President, in which Nugent said Lyndon B. Johnson sent word that "his prayers were with her."

There was a continuing flow of flowers for the President's daughter at the hospital, where she and her baby were occupying the fourth-floor maternity wing hospital rooms under Secret Service guard.

One of the floral displays, moved into Luci's room, came from New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, a White House spokesman said.

Nugent handed out cigars and candy as he announced with tears in his eyes and in a crackling voice early Wednesday that his wife had given birth to an 8-pound, 10-ounce baby boy, 21 inches long.

"It's an elephant, isn't it?" Nugent commented to reporters with a big grin.

Toward the end of the day, Nugent confided he chose the name for his first offspring. It was a combination of his own name and that of his paternal grandfather with a middle name of Lyndon after his father-in-law, the President.

He also confided he had expected his first child to be a girl — "I don't know why."

The President and First Lady expressed their happiness and Mrs. Johnson said she was relieved as well that the birth went without a hitch.

Luci was in labor at the hospital for six hours and her delivery team of five doctors said it was a perfectly normal labor and delivery.

Family and friends were notified and Nugent said he called his brother, Gerard P. Nugent Jr., in San Diego, Calif., whose wife, Phyllis, is expecting a baby any time now.

Meanwhile things were settling into a routine at the hospital for Luci and her newborn son.

Visiting with her during the evening, Nugent decided what his wife should choose from the hospital menu. Instead of the dinner offerings, he picked hot cereal, to the surprise of the nurse on duty.

The family left to Nugent the announcement of the birth of his first son, and he offered reporters cigars and candy and a beaming report on his wife's progress.

Nicklaus Favored at Cleveland

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer
CLEVELAND (AP) — Newly crowned U.S. Open king Jack Nicklaus was a heavy favorite today to capture the $103,500 Cleveland Open Golf Tournament.

But the big baiter from Columbus wasn't likely to carry a smug attitude into the first round of play.

The blond power-hitter won the National Open in record-shattering fashion last weekend with a crafty performance. His five-under-par 65 Sunday at Baltusrol Country Club in Springfield, N.J., included eight birdies.

It was the second Open crown for the 27-year-old Buckeye pro who owns every major title in the book.

But Nicklaus, who has won more than a half million dollars in slightly more than five years, has never come out on top here. Observers figure he may find the $20,700 first prize interesting enough to apply the pressure.

Nicklaus had been anything but impressive until his decisive triumph last week and may be ready to attack the Aurora Country Club's tight 6,611-yard layout where par is 70.

In the first Cleveland Open in 1963, Nicklaus finished seventh while Arnold Palmer prevailed. In 1964, Jack finished in a tie for third while the late Tony Lama topped Palmer in a play-off for the title.

Nicklaus skipped the '65 tourney, a move that drew criticism in these parts. He finished well back in the pack last year with a 278.

Nicklaus has had trouble before winning on Ohio courses. Even before turning to a lucrative career as a professional, Jack failed to win the Ohio Amateur, an event annexed twice by Palmer when the millionaire Pennsylvanian was in the Coast Guard stationed near here.

Still, based on the form he displayed at Baltusrol, Nicklaus has to be the man to beat.

Nicklaus tuned up for first-round action with a nine-hole score of 34 in Wednesday's rain-curtailed pre-am event.

Results in Games at City Park

Results of Little League action Tuesday night at City Park were three wins where 16 played.

In the first game, Lucy's Cafe beat Lloyd's Grocery by a wide margin of 22 to 6. Lucy's Cafe scored 13 runs in the fourth inning with all nine players contributing to the winning cause by getting a hit. The losing pitcher was Jerry Jackson who evened his record of 2 wins and 2 losses. The winning pitcher was William Benton which left him with no losses in his first hour.

In the second game the Merchants got back on the winning track by defeating Hardee and Powell Groceries by a score of 9 to 6. In the feature of this game was Tommy Bostic who got 2 doubles which accounted for three runs. His brother, Carl and Don Petty each contributed a single and a double to the winning cause. The bright moment in Powell-Hardee defeat was when the catcher, Alonzo Nelson went three for three.

In the third and last game of the evening, which was a thriller to the fans who saw Wire Products continue to roll by defeating Young's Chev. by a score of 3 to 1. It was a pitching duel between Young's Chev's ace, Raymond Williams and Jimmy Smith of Wire Products until the third inning when Wire Products pushed across two runs to win the ball game. The highlight of the game and to help his batting out, "Big" Wayne Jackson slammed a two run homer.

Baseball Selecting All Stars

NEW YORK (AP) — If outfielders were allowed to play other positions in baseball's All-Star Game, the major league players would have an easier time in making their selections.

The players went to the polls today to vote for the starting American National League lineups for the summer classic to be played in Anaheim, Tuesday, July 11.

Just what outfielders not to vote for was the number one problem facing the electorate. In the National League seven outfielders are among the top 10 hitters and six are in first place in six of the seven individual categories kept by statisticians. Six outfielders are among the top 10 hitters in the American League, and Baltimore's Frank Robinson not only is the No. 1 batter but he also leads in home runs and runs batted in as he bids for a second straight Triple Crown.

Roberto Clemente, Pittsburgh right fielder, leads the National League hitters; right fielder Hank Aaron of Atlanta is tops in homers and runs scored; Jim Wynn, Houston center fielder, leads in RBI, and St. Louis left fielder Lou Brock leads in hits and stolen bases.

The only nonoutfielders among the first 10 NL hitters are St. Louis first baseman Orlando Cepeda, catcher Tim Lincecum of St. Louis and Philadelphia third baseman Richie Allen. Cepeda, who has played the outfield, is tops in doubles.

The American League non-outfielders who rank among the top 10 in hitting are Detroit catcher Bill Freehan, Minnesota second baseman Rod Carew, California first baseman Don Mincher and Boston shortstop Rico Petrocelli.

Outfielders Cesar Tovar of Minnesota and Rick Monday of Kansas City are not among the first 10 hitters, but Tovar leads in doubles and Monday is tied for first in triples.

The players in each league vote for three outfielders, without designating any positions, four infielders and a catcher.

The managers—Hank Bauer of Baltimore for the American League and Walt Alston of Los Angeles for the National—name the reserves and the pitching staffs.

American League President Joe Cronin named Chicago Manager Eddie Stanky and California skipper Bill Rigney as coaches Wednesday. The AL starting lineups, except for pitchers, will be announced Tuesday and the NL on Wednesday.

Girl Expert in Karate Fights Men

NEW YORK (AP) — When Linda Lutes was a little girl, living out in Alpena, Mich., she never dreamed she would be fighting in Madison Square Garden. And against men, no less.

No, the boxing commission hasn't changed the rules to give licenses to women fighters. Linda is a karate expert who will be competing in the open championships Saturday night.

Can a woman compete with men? Does weight make a difference?

"It's all a matter of skill," said 5-foot-3-inch Linda who weighs 120 pounds. "It's the class that counts, not the weight."

Linda, in home life, the wife of Nelson Howe, a design teacher at Newark, N.J., College of Engineering, practices with her husband about an hour and a half a day, seven days a week.

Who wins?

"My husband is a purple belt," said Linda. "I'm a green belt."

To those who may not know the difference between karate and bocci ball, the gradations of superiority in the sport start with white belt and range upward through yellow, green and purple to black.

"Master Cho (head of the sponsoring Karate Institute) says after the fourth broken toe, it doesn't hurt much," said Linda. "So far, I haven't broken anything. Just a few sprains and bruises."

How would Cassius Clay do against a karate expert?

"He wouldn't have a chance against a black belt," said Linda. "He has only two weapons, his fists. The karate expert has five weapons—his feet, his hands and his head—not to mention his knees."

In her more relaxed moments, Linda is an abstract painter.

Clay Case May Take Two Years

By B. F. KELLUM

HOUSTON, (AP) — Attorneys for Cassius Clay said today it probably will be 18 to 24 months before the appeals are settled on the heavyweight champion's conviction on a charge of refusing to be inducted into the U.S. Army.

Meanwhile, Clay, free on a $5,000 appeals bond, said he soon plans to embark on a series of speaking engagements at colleges and in slum districts.

He said he wasn't thinking about future ring bouts although "everybody knows I'm the best."

Hayden Covington of New York City, Clay's chief lawyer, said it probably will be six months before all records of the trial are transferred to the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals at New Orleans and another three months before arguments are heard.

He indicated the final outcome will be determined in the Supreme Court, a decision he predicted is 18 months to two years away.

Clay was convicted Tuesday by an all-white federal court jury. Judge Joe Ingraham assessed the maximum penalty of five years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

Clay, who refused to take the oath as a draftee April 28, contended he should be exempt because he is a Black Muslim minister named Muhammad Ali. Judge Ingraham instructed the jury, however, to only consider whether Clay knowingly and unlawfully refused to be inducted.

The champion gave no indication of concern Wednesday as he accompanied his attorneys, Covington and Quinlan Hodges of Houston, to the Federal Building for the formal notice of appeal and renewal of the bond he posted following his indictment May 8.

The bond conditions stipulate that he cannot leave this country without permission of the court.

The champion said he plans to go to Chicago soon and then begin his speaking engagements. He mentioned Atlanta; Jacksonville, Fla.; Cleveland; Detroit, and Washington, D.C.

Fisher Hurls Lowly Mets Over Phils

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer
Hire a big enough hall and you could assemble all of the 62 poor souls who've had the thankless task of pitching for the New York Mets during their 5 1/2 adventurous seasons.

But the chairman of the meeting would have to be Jack Fisher, who's in his fourth season of that punishing job. Fisher had been at it longer than anybody else and for that he deserves to be chairman.

He hurled a brilliant two-hitter Wednesday night and beat Philadelphia 2-0 on an attack that consisted mainly of Tommy Davis getting plunked by Jim Bunning's pitches.

It was the best pitched game in the National League where Cincinnati nipped Houston 3-2, Chicago dropped Pittsburgh 6-3, Atlanta battered San Francisco 9-2 and St. Louis shut out Los Angeles 2-0.

In the American League, Boston ripped New York 8-1, Baltimore shaded Kansas City 5-4, Chicago swept a doubleheader from Washington 5-2 and 2-1, and Minnesota battled Detroit to a 5-5 tie halted after eight innings by rain. Cleveland and California were rained out.

The only hits off Fisher were by rookie Gary Sutherland, who looped a leadoff double in the sixth and then singled in the eighth. Fisher struck out five and walked two in running his record to 5-7.

The Mets nipped Bunning for single runs in the first and third innings. Cleon Jones singled and stole second before Bunning hit Ed Kranepool and Davis in the first. Tom Reynolds' sacrifice fly delivered the run.

In the third, Davis was hit again, reached third on Rich Allen's error and then scored on a grounder.

Fisher, the workhorse of the Mets' staff, sailed through the first five innings. Sutherland's double and a pair of walks loaded the bases in the sixth but he escaped by getting Bill White on a grounder.

Like almost all their games, there was a touch of irony attached to the two-hitter for Fisher and the Mets. Sutherland, the only man to hit him safely, is the brother of a former Met pitcher.

Vada Pinson opened Cincinnati's ninth inning with a double and came around on a fly ball and a grounder for the Reds' winning run against Houston.

Pinson moved to third on Tony Perez' fly and scored on Lee May's bounce. Perez and May accounted for Cincinnati's first two runs with solo homers. Jim Wynn hit his 17th for the Astros.

The Cubs moved into third place by beating the Pirates with Curt Simmons and Dick Radatz making an early four-run bulge stand up.

Simmons, 38, worked the first eight innings and Radatz set Pittsburgh down in the ninth as Chicago moved .001 ahead of San Francisco. Adolpho Phillips drove in two runs with a first inning single and John Boccabella chased two more across with a triple in the sixth.

Bob Uecker drove in five runs with a grand slam homer and a double as the Braves whacked the Giants.

Uecker's shot capped a seven-run Atlanta third that put it away for Pat Jarvis, who hurled a six-hitter. Denis Menke tagged three hits including a homer for the Braves.

Right-hander Ray Washburn and two relievers combined for a four-hitter as the Cardinals blanked the Dodgers and ended a four-game Los Angeles winning streak.

Washburn had allowed just three hits until the seventh when he stopped a line drive single by John Roseboro with his pitching hand. Joe Hoerner relieved and pitched out of a bases-loaded jam. He needed last-out help from Nelson Briles.

Washburn suffered a compound dislocation of his right thumb but X rays showed no fractures.

The seventh inning gave Jim O'Toole the triumph in the nightcap with relief help from Bob Locker.

Wait entered in time to strike out Bert Campaneris with the bases loaded in the eighth inning and protect Pete Richert's victory for the Orioles.

Frank Robinson hit his 21st homer with a man on and Dave Johnson drove in two more runs to build Baltimore's lead.

All records count and the game will be replayed from the start.

The word slogan originated as a war cry or gathering cry of the Scottish clans.

Alleged Cosa Nostra Figure Held at Spa

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Pasquale A. Massi, 63, of Cherry Hill, N. J., an alleged Cosa Nostra figure arrested by the FBI here Wednesday on charges of sodomy and bribery, will have a preliminary hearing before U.S. Commissioner Sigun Rasmussen at 2:30 p.m. Monday.

The hearing date was set Wednesday by Acting U.S. Commissioner Henry M. Britt, who freed Massi on bonds of $2,500 for each charge. A Hot Springs bonding company put up the money.

Britt, acting at the request of the U.S. State Department and U.S. Atty. Charles M. Conway of Fort Smith, who authorized the federal charges against Massi, asked Massi to surrender his passport.

Richard Hobbs and William Green, the Hot Springs attorney representing Massi, said they would try to get it from Massi's home in Cherry Hill, where his wife owns a motel.

Britt also denied an oral motion for dismissal of the case. Massi, who has been vacationing here, is accused of committing sodomy June 11 with a 16-year-old Negro youth in the Arlington Park area at the north end of the Bath House Row in downtown Hot Springs. Conviction on that charge could bring him 21 years in prison.

He also is accused of offering a $200 bribe to Hot Springs National Park Ranger David J. Essex, who says he witnessed the alleged act and arrested Massi on a routine charge of disorderly conduct.

A bribery conviction would be punishable by a $20,000 fine and -or 15 years in prison.

Britt said that even though no money changed hands, Massi was charged with bribery rather than attempted bribery because both offenses were covered under the same act.

The charges were brought by the federal government because the offense is alleged to have occurred on a government reservation.

The penalties for crime on a government reservation are determined by the laws of the state in which the offense is committed. Sodomy in Arkansas is a felony.

Essex said he freed Massi on his own recognizance after the original arrest. The FBI moved in after recognizing Massi's name on the arrest record.

FBI agents took him into custody at 12:05 a.m. Wednesday at the hotel where he was staying. He was to have been arraigned at 8:30 a.m., but Britt continued the arraignment until 3:30 p.m. after Hobbs and Green said they hadn't time to confer with their client.

The squat, beefy Massi clutched a white handkerchief and repeatedly mopped his brow during his appearance in the air-conditioned court room.

Massi, a native of Teramo, Italy, came to the United States in February 1921 and was naturalized in August 1947 at Camden N. J. He went back to Italy in May 1964 and lived there until he returned to New York last May 5, leaving his wife and their son and daughter in Teramo.

Police Commissioner Frank Rizzo of Philadelphia, Pa., has described Massi as a lieutenant to Angelo Bruno, who was said by Joe Valachi to be the Philadelphia head of the Cosa Nostra.

Wage Hikes Offered to Garbage Men

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Mayor Austin Franks offered striking municipal workers a wage increase Wednesday, but demanded that they accept the offer Wednesday night, Mrs. Jeanne Lambie, state president of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, said Wednesday.

Mrs. Lambie said Franks offered a 10-cents-an-hour increase to truck drivers in the city's Sewer, Street and Sanitation Department, and a 15-cent-an-hour increase to garbage collectors.

Franks said he would place an ad in Thursday's paper for replacements for striking workers if they didn't accept his offer by Wednesday night, Mrs. Lambie said.

"It was totally impossible to round up the (union) membership in short notice," she said.

She said she sent a telegram to Franks advising him that local 966 would make a "sincere and good faith effort to get its membership together Thursday night to vote on the wage proposal."

Mrs. Lambie said the telegram requested Franks not to place any advertisement for employment in the paper until a quorum of local 966's membership had a chance to vote on the wage proposal.

Earlier, Franks issued an ultimatum that if workers had not returned to their jobs by normal starting time Wednesday, they would face dismissal.

Twenty-six city employees returned to work Wednesday, but about 50 of the remaining workers in the Sanitation Department continued the strike.

Franks said Wednesday afternoon that he would not enforce the deadline right away.

Pay Hikes for 1,173 in Retirement

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Employees Retirement System Board authorized Wednesday a 10 per cent increase in retirement benefits for 1,173 persons.

The July 1 benefits will total $62,089 for active retired persons in the state, county, municipal, school (non-teaching) and legislative divisions of the program.

The 1967 legislature provided for a 1 per cent increase in contributions by state and political subdivisions to the program, said B. E. Friday, executive director of the board.

State Treasurer Nancy Hall was elected chairman by the board and state Auditor Jimmie Jones was named vice chair-

Episcopal Nominees for Bishop

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Rt. Rev. Robert R. Brown, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Arkansas, announced five nominees for the position of bishop coadjutor Wednesday.

A coadjutor is the assistant bishop who automatically succeeds the diocesan bishop upon his death or retirement.

The coadjutor will be elected June 28.

Nominated for the post are the Very Rev. Christoph Keller Jr., now dean at St. Andrew's Cathedral, Jackson, Miss.; the Rev. David Henry Lewis Jr., rector of St. Matthew's Church, Richmond, Va.; the Rev. Thomas Adams Roberts, rector of St. George's Church, Nashville, Tenn.; The Venerable John G. Swope Jr., of Little Rock, arch-deacon of the Arkansas Diocese; and the Rev. William A. Willcox Jr., rector of St. Mark's Church, Little Rock.

The coadjutor is expected to be chosen from these nominees, but delegates to the special election convention will be allowed to make nominations from the floor.

The British nicknamed Gen. Francis Marion, a leader in the Revolutionary War, the "Swamp Fox."

WIN AT BRIDGE

Vienna Coup Is Slam Key

By Oswald & James Jacoby
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

One of the special tools in every expert's kit bag is the "Grand Slam Force." Invented by Ely Culbertson in 1934, this bid languished in limbo for a long time simply because it was too advanced for those early days. It has been revived in the last 10 years.

South was well up on all bidding conventions and his five no-trump call is a perfect example of this bid at work. It asked North about the quality of his trumps. Of course South might have assumed that North would not open a vulnerable three heart bid in second seat without both the king and queen but there was no harm in finding out. North would have rebid six clubs with either the king or queen, six diamonds with just the ace, and his six heart bid showed two of the three top honors. At least this is the way that particular pair play the convention. There is no standard agreement on it.

East had started harassing with his four spade bid. He continued to six and seven and South took the push to seven no-trump.

South may well have been a genius at bidding. His play was far from that. He won the spade lead with his ace

Vienna Coup and would have insured the contract against West's club-diamond holding. South would come down to four clubs. West would have to chuck his king of diamonds or a low club and South would have made his grand slam.

WIN AT BRIDGE

Q—The bidding has been:

West North East South
1 ♠ 2 ♥ 1 ♣ 1 ♥
2 ♠ 2 ♥ 1 ♣ 1 ♥

You, South, hold:
♠ A K J 7 ♣ K 3 2 ♠ A Q 10 5 4

A—Bid either three or four hearts depending on how light your partner may raise one of your overcalls.

TODAY'S QUESTION
You bid four hearts. West doubles. East goes to four spades. What do you do now?

QUICK QUIZ

BLONDIE

Q—What musical instrument is named for a bandmaster?
A—The sousaphone, named for John Philip Sousa, its originator.

Q—Why is Holy Thursday called Maundy Thursday?
A—The word "maundy" is an English corruption of the Latin "mandati." The day was called Maundy Thursday from "dies mandati," the day of the mandate, from the direction Jesus gave that evening to his followers: "A new commandment—that ye love one another."

UN Debate Just Like an Old Western

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — It was like a Western with the guys in the white hats and the guys in the black hats. Just who was wearing which hat at any given moment depended upon who was talking.

This was the condition at the end of the second day of debate for the Israeli-Arab war at the U.N. General Assembly.

Discussion reached the intellectual level of "you're another." Reason departed. Blame was the common language. Disposition became routine. Diplomats used bad manners and childishness to make an impression.

If any earnest and sensible effort is being made to reach a peaceful settlement, it must be going on behind the scenes. There what the delegates say to one another doesn't have to have any connection with what they say in the open.

In public they go through a predictable dance, like characters in a ballet.

Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin is a good example. His purpose was clear before he began: Moscow wants to regain the goodwill of the Arabs whom they let down when the war with Israel began.

So he denounced Israel, asking the assembly to condemn it as an aggressor and tell it to give back the land it seized from the Arabs. He denounced the United States, too, but more mildly.

It was a tired kind of speech, full of the usual Communist clichés about "Western Imperialism." He reached a peak of bad taste in making a comparison between the tactics of Israel and Hitler.

It was a one-sided speech, too, all on the side of the Arabs, ignoring any virtue Israel might have had on its side, and always calculated to endear the Arabs to Moscow.

But the Israeli foreign minister, Abba Eban who answered Kosygin brilliantly, made a one-sided speech, too. In addition, he denounced Kosygin for the Israeli-Hitler comparison and accused him of untruths.

But U Thant, the U.N. secretary general, also accused Eban of untruths.

This was after Eban criticized Thant for acting too fast in pulling the U.N. peacekeeping troops out of Egypt, where they had been stationed 10 years, when Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser told him to.

The usually docile Thant was angry Tuesday when he opened the session with an attack on Eban.

Then came the tactics which have become typical among diplomats who, to show their contempt for an opponent, get up and walk out in the middle of his speech. They apparently consider this a mature rebuke without ever thinking it may look childish.

One of the Arab leaders, Syrian President Nouraddin Atassi, was in the midst of a denunciation of Israel Tuesday when Eban walked out.

And when Eban made another walk Tuesday top-level Soviet bloc delegates and Arab leaders got up and walked out on him, which is what Kosygin did Monday while Eban was talking.

To nobody's surprise, for they couldn't do otherwise after Kosygin had laid down the Communist line, the premiers of Bulgaria and Czechoslovakia also made speeches attacking Israel.

The only graceful note in the two days came from Arthur J. Goldberg, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, and even that may turn out to be unrealistic.

He suggested, among other things, that Israel and the Arabs negotiate a settlement, a suggestion which the Arabs had already said they wouldn't consider.

But at least Goldberg offered a five-point peace plan, which is more forward-looking than anything Kosygin had to offer, although there was nothing new in it since President Johnson had proposed it Monday.

Yet, up to this point only one thing is clear. That's the policy the United States is following in this debate.

It has been letting all the others make the noise, denounce, condemn, distort, while it talks reasonableness. It is on the opposite side of the fence from Moscow in this debate, opposing condemnation of Israel.

But the United States is letting Israel make the big pitch for Israel while Goldberg talks about peaceful solutions and a new tomorrow. It's a startling contrast, although whether it influences the United Nations' 122 members is to be seen.

Rain Dampens Violence in Atlanta

By JOE ZELLNER

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Rain showers dampened hot, muggy weather and helped wash away fears of racial violence Wednesday night after four nights of disturbances erupted in gunfire leaving one dead and several injured.

As calm returned to the predominantly Negro Dixie Hills section, "black power" advocate Stokely Carmichael faced a hearing today on charges stemming from a brief flareup over the weekend.

Carmichael, former chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, was arrested on a charge of failing to heed an officer's command to move on. He was freed on bond.

Police officials canceled all leaves and vacations in anticipation of more violence, but no trouble was reported Wednesday night.

A relaxation of Mayor Ivan Allen's curfew order kept efforts to reduce tension.

At the urging of State Sen. Leroy Johnson and other Negro leaders, Allen reduced the curfew from 12 hours to six — from midnight to 6 a.m. He said it would not hinder persons sitting on porches for relief from the heat or going about their normal business.

In the only reported incident, a policeman found a smoking bottle filled with flammable liquid on top of a supermarket during the afternoon. It was extinguished easily.

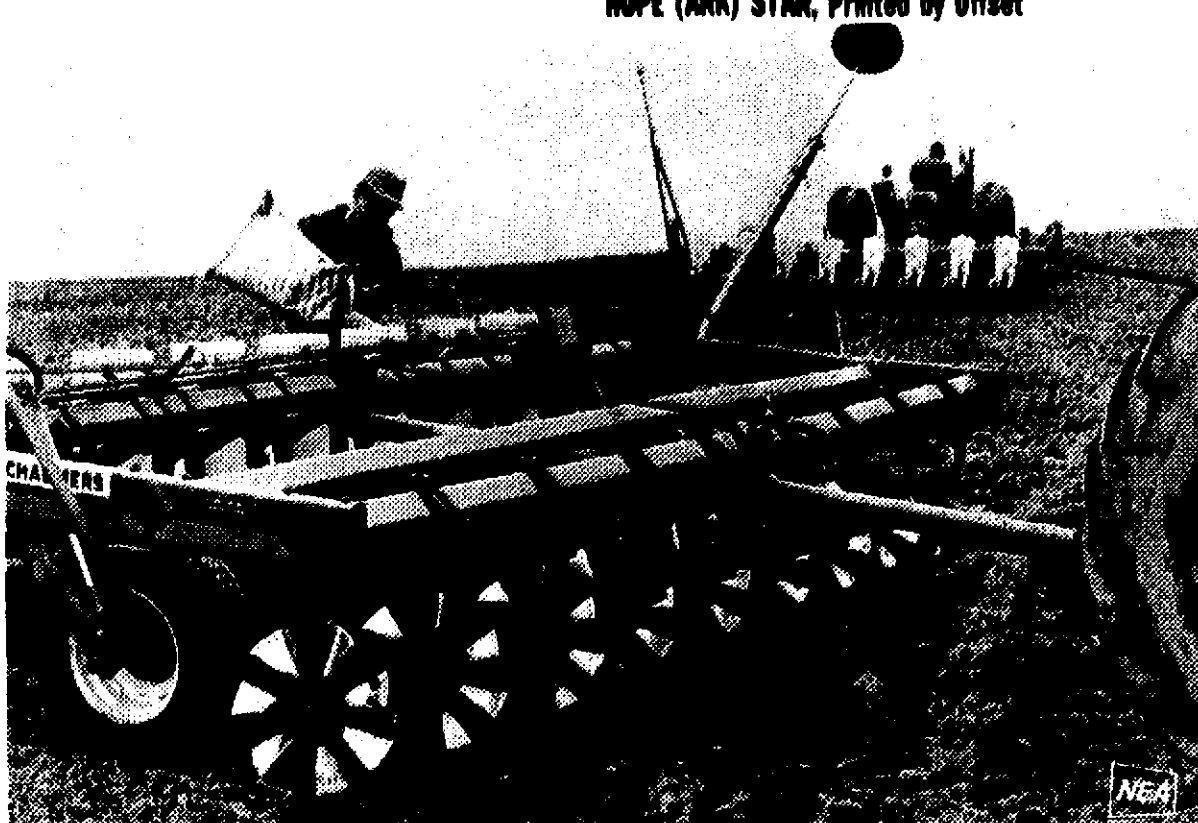

Negro leaders and city officials worked feverishly to restore peace.

Johnson said about 1,000 persons who live in the area signed a petition aimed at showing the neighborhood did not support the violence.

PLANTING WITHOUT TILLING speeded the operation for Larry Hight, 26, and his father Clyde of Moweaqua, Ill., this spring when they put in 1,100 acres of corn in six days. Using a new type of planter that stirs up a seed bed five to seven inches deep just ahead of the seed boxes, they planted the entire crop without using a plow. Idea behind the new "No-Till" is to reduce time, effort and money spent to prepare a seed bed, according to the machine's developers, the Allis-Chalmers company.

Hubert Going to Korea Inaugural

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's visit to South Korea for the inauguration of President Chung Hee Park could find the vice president indirectly involved in a seething political dispute.

South Korea's opposition party, claiming irregularities in the June 8 parliamentary elections, has vowed to boycott the National Assembly on July 1 — the scheduled date for Park's inauguration to a second four-year term.

Students have loudly protested the parliamentary election results, in which Park's party won 130 of 175 National Assembly seats. Park has since expelled a number of his party members from the assembly, but the government party still holds 102 seats.

The White House announced Wednesday that Humphrey and his wife will fly to South Korea next Wednesday and spend several days there in addition to attending the inauguration.

Alzheimer Offers Plan for Schools

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — The Alzheimer School Board, acting in response to an order by a panel of the 8th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals at St. Louis, will submit a tentative desegregation plan to the federal District Court at Little Rock July 1.

The plan calls for seven white teachers to be assigned to the district's all-Negro Martin Luther School in 1967-68, with one Negro teacher to be assigned to its predominantly white Alzheimer School.

Three white teachers taught at Martin last year, but there were no Negro teachers at Alzheimer.

Forty-seven Negro students have been assigned to Alzheimer out of 58 who elected to attend

Thursday, June 22, 1967
it under the freedom of choice plan initiated in 1966-67.

No white students have chosen to attend Martin.

The board said teacher pay had been equalized on the basis of qualifications, experience and position, and that pupil-teacher ratios next year would be substantially the same for both schools.

School buses will pick up pupils without regard to race, the board said, and all steps will be taken to insure early accreditation of Martin by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

The May 17th order from the 8th Circuit Court of Appeals required the district to begin eliminating the racial identity of the two schools.

It reversed an earlier ruling by federal District Judge J. Smith Henley of Little Rock, who had dismissed a suit filed early last year by a group of Negro students seeking to bar racial discrimination in the school district.

Chile is sometimes called the "shoestring republic" because it is so long and narrow.

Superstition's Source
Early Christians considered walking under a ladder to be wrong because a ladder leaning against a building formed a triangle, the symbol of the Trinity. One who walked through the triangle defied religion and, thus, the superstition of bad luck arose.

Goldwater Visiting Young GOPs
OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Barry Goldwater came today to a presidential nominee, had his Young Republican National Federation convention in the throes of an uphill struggle by moderates to break the control his conservatives won in 1963. With the federation heading for a countdown Friday in a three-man race for its new chairman, Goldwater, the 1964 presidential nominee, had his opportunity to point the course he thinks the Republicans ought to pursue to defeat President Johnson next year.

As a candidate for the Senate again, Goldwater's influence among Young Republicans who campaigned ardently for him in 1964 is not discounted in any quarter.

GOP National Chairman Ray Bliss, fighting to restore national committee checks on the sometimes rampant youth organization, got a hearing on his side of the case that the federation's mission is to elect—but not to select—the presidential nominee.

Bliss told a news conference on his arrival Tuesday night that he is not interested in how the Young Republicans conduct their internal affairs, but only in strengthening the organization for a campaign to support the 1968 nominee once he has been named.

He said he is reporting to the convention methods of enlisting wider support for the nominee whoever he might be. Bliss declined to take any position on the candidates or the chairmanship.

Bliss' position has been put into proposed constitutional amendments by Tom Van Sickle of Kansas, retiring chairman. These would give the national chairman a veto on the selection of an executive board and set a national 34-year age limit on members.

Jim Betts of Cleveland, Ohio, candidate of the moderates, "gang busters," said he supports the proposals that would give the national committee a rein on federation activities. But he told a news conference he doesn't agree with the age limit provision.

Although Van Sickle has told Bliss he thinks it is impossible to get the needed two-thirds convention approval for constitutional changes, Betts said he thinks it might be possible to pass all except the age limit provision.

Betts said that Jack McDonald of Nashville, Tenn., candidate of the conservative "syndicate," already has picked Ted Cormaney of Wisconsin as his choice for executive director if McDonald wins.

Cormaney has been the chief legislative staff analyst for the Republican party in the Wisconsin Assembly since April 1965. Before that, he was executive secretary of the Wisconsin Young Republicans Federation.

his business philosophy is a lot like ours

He buys direct, eliminating in between costs.

He watches his operating expenses.

He sells a quality product... Ann Page Cheeri-Aid

He guarantees satisfaction.

He can because we completely guarantee the Cheeri-Aid.

He sells at a fair price and makes a profit in pennies.

Young businessmen like this could be our competitors some day.

After all, we started with just one product more than a century ago.

Here's an important tip to all young businessmen.

You must care...

about the products you sell... the people you serve.

Tourists Booths Opened

HOPE, ARKANSAS TOURIST INFORMATION

The Chamber of Commerce Tourist Committee activities got underway last week with the opening of the booths on each edge of town on U.S. Highway 67. This will be a 10 week program with college or college bound students working in the booths. In addition to the Chamber of Commerce, other organizations participating in the program are: Hope Rotary Club, Hope Kiwanis Club, Hope Lions Club, The Cotton Club and the Anna P. Strong Club.

"This was a very successful program in 1966 and we hope to make it even better in 1967," said Chamber president, Lester Sizemore.

Bimini Wonders Why Adam Does Not Go Home

By AUSTIN SCOTT
BIMINI, Bahamas (AP) — There are no "Adam Go Home" signs in Bimini, and with the praise that flows every time representative-elect Adam Clayton Powell's name is mentioned, there aren't likely to be any.

Nonetheless, some Biminians are beginning to ponder the same question being asked in some Harlem circles: Why doesn't he go home, at least for a visit?

"Adam Powell is a nice man," said one of the young men who works near the two bars which Powell most often frequents. "But I don't think he's being fair to the people who elected him."

Several groups in Harlem have voiced the same opinion since Powell, a Democrat, won a landslide re-election April 11 to the House of Representatives seat from which the House excluded him March 1.

Powell has said he is afraid there will be civil disturbances if he returns to Harlem and is arrested. Two contempt-of-court arrest warrants still threaten him if he sets foot in New York State.

Several Harlem groups have sent telegrams to Powell urging him to come home. Most point out that even if he is arrested,

Hippies Gather at Frisco Celebration

By HAROLD V. STREETER
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Flower Children climbed a mountain, swarmed a polo field and crowded a beach to welcome the arrival of their "summer of love."

"A solstice happening," one bearded hippie termed the turnout for the first day of a season which the nonconformist disciples of love predict will bring 100,000 hippies to San Francisco.

In the chilly predawn Wednesday, scores gathered on Twin Peaks — 900-foot mountains in the city's center — where they chanted and meditated until the sun rose.

"It was a sort of Buddhist yogi," explained bearded Bill Thomas, his arm crushing a red-haired girl in filmy gown against his suede jacket.

Wailing electric guitars and booming drums assaulted the ears of upwards of a thousand at the "happening" at Golden Gate Park's polo field.

Tribal groups clustered about small combo bands — the Grateful Dead, Quicksilver Messenger Service, the Mad River, the Phoenix, Big Brother and the Holding Company.

One tribe squatted under fluttering flags with the Star of David and the Cross, keeping time with a tabla — a bongo-type drum — a tambourine and a portable reedorgan.

"This is a Krishna, an Indian ceremony," one explained.

"This draws energy by clearing one's state of mind."

Nearby, a youth with hair hanging over his face ardently kissed a blonde.

The gathering ran the gamut of garb — miniskirts, shawls, black leather jackets, even a male wrapped in the royal purple of a Chinese Mandarin coat. Most of the males dangled bead necklaces. And everywhere were the paper flowers.

One squatting couple shielded a flickering candle from the wind with a sack, while they sipped wine from a silver chalice.

Grownups blew bubbles, while their children romped. At the beach Wednesday night the moonlight ceremony focused on a 63-year-old witch.

"She's freaking out a few people," a hippie told a bystander. "Freak out?"

"Well," replied the hippie, fumbling for words, "that means blow out a few minds." That's how summer came to Twin Peaks.

he would simply be joining the ranks of such Negro leaders as Dr. Martin Luther King and CORE's Floyd McKissick.

A telegram sent last month by a group of Harlem ministers, said "the fight is on the streets of Harlem," not in Bimini. It was liberally quoted in an editorial in the New York Courier, one of Harlem's two weekly newspapers.

Two weeks ago J. Raymond Jones, formerly head of Tammany Hall, a Negro and once a strong Powell supporter, surprised everyone with a statement that Powell, veteran of 22 years in Congress, could never regain the power he once had.

It looked to some like the opening of a "get-Powell" campaign. The Rev. R. M. Kinloch, chairman of Harlem's Protestant Council and a signer of the ministers' telegram, said he knew of several persons who were considering running against the congressman-elect in the next election, a little more than a year away.

"We stood up and fought for him," Kinloch said. "Now the question is, will he stand up and fight for us?"

Jones blamed Powell's downfall on his alliance with "extremist" groups, particularly those supporting black power.

143 Enemy Killed in Two Battles

By GEORGE ESPER
SAIGON (AP) — U. S. forces reported killing 143 Communist troops in two battles in the central lowlands Wednesday while waves of U. S. jets ranged over a wide area to pound North Vietnam's rail network and its biggest iron and steel works.

American casualties in the lowlands battles 300 miles north of Saigon were six dead, 22 wounded and four missing, the U. S. Command said. It said there was light, scattered contact in 21 other U. S. and allied ground operations.

With good weather prevailing, U. S. Air Force and Navy pilots flew 133 missions against the Communist North. They hammered 11 railroad yards and rail lines from the demilitarized zone to more than 50 miles above Hanoi.

The attacks on the rail network were a continuation of a two-month-old campaign against Hanoi's rail routes. U.S. planes raided the Thai Nguyen steel works north of Hanoi for the eighth time, and a U. S. RF101 reconnaissance plane was shot down, the 587th U. S. combat plane reported lost over North Vietnam. The pilot was rescued.

Hanoi Radio claimed three U.S. planes were shot down Wednesday, including two pilotless reconnaissance craft. The U. S. Command announced that 143 Americans were killed in combat last week, the lowest for any week since early February. American casualties for the week totaled 1,112 — seven less than the week before — and included 953 wounded and 16 missing.

The U. S. Command reported a big jump in Communist dead, from 1,153 the week before to 1,852. The South Vietnamese government reported 213 of its troops killed last week, 556

U.S. Quietly Trying to Figure Out a Way to Give Jordan Help

By ENDRE MARTON
WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is quietly considering what it can do to help Jordan, which appears to be the big loser in the Arab-Israeli war.

There are three key reasons for special U.S. attention to the plight of Jordan, officials explain.

— Jordan's loss of relatively more territory than Egypt or Syria, and of important sources of revenue, including income from tourism with such tourist attractions as Jerusalem and Bethlehem now in Israeli hands.

— The problem of refugees who left their homes west of the Jordan River in panic when the Israelis advanced.

— The belief that despite his participation in the war against Israel, King Hussein, Jordan's ruler, is still the best friend the United States has in the Arab world. Hussein, with Saudi Arabia's King Faisal, can again represent moderation against the leaders in Damascus and Cairo, U.S. officials hope.

Hussein, officials recalled, departed from the Arab propaganda line when he admitted at a June 19 news conference he had no proof of U.S. or British aid support for the Israeli side.

Egypt's President Gamal Abdel Nasser used charges of such aid support as one excuse for the Arab defeat. The Johnson administration hopes this charge eventually will be discredited in the Arab world.

Hussein, it is believed in Washington, virtually became Nasser's prisoner when the Egyptians took control of the Gulf of Aqaba after withdrawal of the U.N. peacekeeping force. Jordan's only outlet to the sea, the Port of Aqaba, is in the Gulf and Hussein seemingly had no choice but to fall in line with Nasser.

Jordan's military hardware is believed to have been almost destroyed during the war with Israel. It consisted exclusively of British and American equip-

Rockefeller to Visit Here June 27-28

Governor Winthrop Rockefeller will spend two days in Southwest Arkansas Tuesday, June 27, and Wednesday, June 28.

He will begin his tour in Texarkana and visit state offices before going on to Ashdown to see the Nekooza-Edwards Plant. He will proceed from Ashdown across Millwood Dam area to historic Washington, Arkansas. There he will lunch with area legislators and the seven county Judges of Hempstead, Sevier, Howard, Little River, Miller, Lafayette and Nevada Counties.

Following the luncheon he will visit industry and state offices in the Hope area for the remainder of his tour.

Mosquito Control Drive at Millwood

An intensive mosquito control program has been initiated at the Millwood Reservoir according to Mr. Otis K. Higginbotham, Resident Engineer.

The supervision and execution of the mosquito control program will be performed under the direction of Mr. Warren Butler, Reservoir Ranger. This program will be conducted as a scheduled part of the maintenance program and will include all measures for the safe and efficient control of mosquitoes.

Appropriate coordination has been accomplished with the applicable federal, state and local authorities. Before starting this program a survey was taken with a large number of local citizens, including county officials, plant managers, developers, farmers and cattlemen within the area. They were all interested in some type of mosquito control.

The control measures now being used include aerial spraying with DDT and diesel fuel, logging of recreation areas using diesel fuel and various insecticides and draining of swampy areas, where possible. All recreation areas, open shoreline, spillway and office areas, and Okay Levee and ponding areas were sprayed aerially on May 18, 1967, and June 15, 1967. Favorable reports have been received from people around the lake.

Receives Scholarship—Stanley L. Reyenga, Route 4, Hope, was presented a four-year Arkansas Opportunity Fund Scholarship by Governor Rockefeller Saturday, June 17. The Governor is the major contributor to the fund which has provided scholarships for Arkansas students since 1957. Presentations were made at an awards luncheon at Winrock Farms with Governor and Mrs. Rockefeller serving as hosts. Reyenga will attend the University of Arkansas and plans to major in engineering.

Local Group to Attend La. Meeting

Hope will be represented at the "Disciple-making" district assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses to be held in Shreveport, Louisiana June 22-25. Six thousand delegates from 18 states are expected to attend the four-day meet at the Youth Center.

The Hope congregation will have 25 ministers and their families present for the Bible education program which will consist of talks, experiences and dramatic presentations of Bible events.

Last year in Dallas and Mobile more than 50,000 were in attendance. Although this year's convention in Shreveport won't be as large, Mr. Eugene Shuster, who is the presiding minister of the Hope congregation said this is due to 49 such assemblies being held this summer in the United States. Other assemblies in the South will be held in Columbus, Georgia; Montgomery, Alabama; Galveston and Waco, Texas.

The Watchtower Bible Society which is an international educational agency, arranges for three assemblies each year for each congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses to attend. All sessions are free and the Hope congregation invites all interested ones to attend.

Man With Gun Almost Enters Soviet Mission

NEW YORK (AP)—A detective asked the neatly dressed man who had strolled past a dozen policemen and had a foot inside the door of the mission where the Soviet premier was meeting with aides what he had in the canvas bag he was carrying. "A gun," replied the man.

Detective James Savarese already had him by the elbow as he was walking into the Soviet U.N. Mission. In seconds Wednesday, a group of policemen surrounded the 5-foot-5, slender man and found a loaded .32-caliber revolver, ammunition and a 10-inch hunting knife in the blue bag.

It was the third time since Premier Alexei N. Kosygin arrived Saturday that an unauthorized person has seemed to penetrate the heavy security screen around him. But city police and State Department security forces insisted there were no holes in the protective net.

Decision on Summit Meet Likely Today

UNITED NATIONS (AP)—President Johnson and Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin may decide today whether to hold a summit meeting. Kosygin's stay in the United States was drawing to a close, and Wednesday night their foreign ministers left the final decision to their two chiefs.

This became known after a three-hour dinner meeting between U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko at Rusk's suite in the Waldorf Towers.

Rusk and Gromyko dealt with summit possibilities in a discussion which also ranged over the U.N. General Assembly special session on the Middle East and other unspecified items of U.S.-Soviet interest.

Gromyko told newsmen afterward that Kosygin would be returning to Moscow soon but probably not before Friday.

Since Johnson had a heavy schedule in Washington today, it appeared unlikely that even a brief Big Two parley could take place until Friday or later. Some expected Kosygin would stay in New York until the end of the week.

One possible indication of a Johnson-Kosygin meeting came Wednesday when the White House announced that Prime Minister Jens Otto Krag of Denmark would see the President in Washington today instead of Friday, as previously scheduled.

Tree Knocks Out Power

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Winds of 30-40 miles per hour blew a large tree down on the main circuit of an Arkansas Power & Light Co. substation here Wednesday, blacking out part of the downtown business district from 5:55 p.m. until shortly after 7 p.m.

Hope Well Represented at Girls State

A Hope family was represented by three members and in three different capacities at Girls State this year, members of the American Legion Auxiliary, Leslie Huddleston Unit 12, were told at a meeting Tuesday night, June 20 in the home of Mrs. Talbot Field, Jr. Mrs. McDowell Turner was one of those handling publicity for the encampment near Little Rock; one of her daughters, Susan, was a counselor; and another daughter, Ellen, was a delegate. This is, possibly, the first time for such an unusual occurrence at Arkansas Girls State.

This week's meeting in the Field home was highlighted with reports of Girls State from each of the 10 delegates, Ellen Turner, Martha Bader, Charlotte Moore, Jenny Tolleson, Rachel Batson, Sally Booth, Debbie Watson, Carol Anthony, Donna Byers, and Cathie Field. One aspect of the meeting all the delegates from Hope enjoyed was meeting the two girls who attended from Mexico City.

During a brief business meeting Mrs. E.S. Franklin presided and heard a Child Welfare report. The local meeting was held in a setting of daisies, roses, and mixed flowers. An ice course was served to members and one guest, Mrs. Tom Carle of Magnolia.

Quake Shakes Fairbanks

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP)—Residents were sweeping up, mopping floors, and repairing broken glass today in the wake of seven earthquakes that rocked this area Wednesday.

It was the worst shaking this inland Alaska city has felt in three decades, but did not approach the devastation caused by the March 1964 earthquake in the Anchorage area.

There were no reports of injuries here Wednesday and no major structural damage. Seismograph stations in Alaska and Washington State rated the three heaviest shocks at an intensity of 6.7 to 7 on the Richter scale.

Burglars Hit Bank of Blevins, Escape With From $5000 to $6000

France to Carry on UN Debate

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—France entered the U.N. debate on the Middle East today as President Johnson and Premier Alexei N. Kosygin kept the world wondering whether they would meet during the Soviet leader's brief visit to the United States.

French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville's speech to the U.N. General Assembly was expected to expand on a statement by President Charles de Gaulle Wednesday which paroled out support to both sides in the Arab-Israeli dispute.

For the Arabs, De Gaulle said Israel started the war and France does not consider any Israeli territorial gains to be final. For the Israelis, he said every Middle East state, "notably Israel," has a right to live and he condemned the Arab threat to destroy the Jewish state.

U.S. and Soviet sources indicated that Johnson and Kosygin may decide today whether to meet in the brief time left before the Soviet premier's departure.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko discussed summit possibilities at a three-hour dinner meeting at Rusk's Waldorf Tower suite Wednesday night. But they left the final decision to their chiefs.

Gromyko told newsmen Kosygin would return to Moscow soon but probably not before Friday. Johnson had a full schedule in Washington today, and it appeared that if even a brief courtesy meeting was arranged, it would be Friday or during the weekend.

In the General Assembly Wednesday, Israel quickly rejected Britain's warning not to claim all of Jerusalem as a prize of war.

British Foreign Secretary George Brown declared Israel would isolate itself from world opinion if it held onto Old Jerusalem wrested from Jordan.

Workers Vote for Teamsters

WYNNE, Ark. (AP)—Representation by Teamsters Local 878 was approved 143-102 in a National Labor Relations Board election conducted here Wednesday for employees of Halstead Metal Products, Inc., which is expected to employ some 1,200 persons when its new plant is completed.

Burglars broke into the Bank of Blevins Wednesday night and escaped with an estimated $5,000 to $6,000. The estimate was made by Wayne Bell, a teller, following a hasty check this morning.

Another source said the loss could possibly run as high as $8,000, all of which if fully covered by insurance. It was indicated that it might take several days for a complete check-up because many customers kept some currency and old coins in personal boxes in the vault.

So far as can be determined right now the burglars only took money and bothered nothing else. The break-in was discovered about 8:30 a.m. when a passer-by noticed that a window screen had been torn away.

P.C. Stephens, vice-president and cashier of the bank, said the burglars broke through the doors to the vault and then used an acetylene torch to cut into the safe containing money.

The outer door was not damaged, Mr. Stephens said, indicating that the burglars managed to work the combination. The burglars left their acetylene drums in the bank when they fled.

State Police, County officers and the FBI are investigating. This is the second bank in this section to be hit this month. On June 15 two masked gunmen held up the bank of Dierks and escaped with $23,000 in cash. There have been no arrests in this robbery.

Hope Champs to State Meet This Weekend

District Poultry Festival winners from Hope will be participating in the State Activities in Hot Springs June 22, 23, and 24.

Mrs. Bert Rettig, Mrs. Jimmy Daniels, Mrs. Earl Whitaker of Hope and chaperones, will register as Poultry Cooking contestants Thursday, at 2:00 p.m. at the Velda Rose Tower. The cooking contestants, princesses and industry people will attend a get-acquainted dinner Thursday night. The Poultry Cooking contest will be held Saturday morning at the Arkansas Power and Light Company Building.

Donald Middlebrooks, of Hope, will be participating in the State 4-H Barbecue Contest Saturday morning held on the Arkansas Power and Light Patio. Jerry Alexander will be attending as Donald's chaperone.

Twenty winners from the five district area contests will be in competition for each activity.

Carole Bresler, Jr. Field Assistant with Extension Service, was requested to prepare name tags and identification cards, by the State Poultry Cooking Chairman, for dishes for State Poultry Cooking Contest.

State winners of the contests will be recognized at the Coronation Banquet Saturday night at the Hot Springs Convention Auditorium. Contestants and chaperones will be guests for the banquet, beauty pageant and entertainment.

Helena Woman 113 Years Old

HELENA, Mont. (AP) — "I'm not fit for the chopping block yet," says Helena's mother Berry, "because I'm too tough." She celebrated her 113th birthday Wednesday.

She came to Helena with her late veterinarian husband, Dr. J.D. Berry, 53 years ago and voted in every election until she was 100.

"I had to quit then," she recalled, "I nearly fell down the stairs at Kessler School and broke my head the last time I voted."

Born in Australia of Welsh immigrant parents, her father taught her how to ride horses and she became a professional jockey—under the name Jack Williams—by the time she was 13.

"My father was a bookie and a gambler," she says. "He made a hay out of me because he didn't have one, I won about 4,200 races in my day."
